

14.5 Appendix 5: Raptor species that are considered appropriate for sport hunting activities in the WCP.

| Scientific Name:                           | Common Name:                                                                               |
|--------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accipiter melanoleucus melanoleucus | Black Sparrowhawk; Swartsperwer (indigenous to WCP)                                        |
| Accipiter minullus                  | Little Sparrowhawk; Kleinsperwer (indigenous to WCP)                                       |
| Accipiter rufiventris rufiventris   | Red-breasted Sparrowhawk; Rufous-breasted Sparrowhawk; Rooiborssperwer (indigenous to WCP) |
| Accipiter tachiro                   | African Goshawk; Afrikaanse Sperwer (indigenous to WCP)                                    |
| Buteo rufofuscus rufofuscus         | Jackal Buzzard; Rooiborsjakkalsvoël (indigenous to WCP)                                    |
| Falco biarmicus biarmicus           | Lanner Falcon; Edelvalk (indigenous to WCP)                                                |
| Falco peregrinus minor              | African Peregrine Falcon; Afrikaanse Swerfvalk (indigenous to WCP)                         |
| Falco rupicoloides rupicoloides     | Greater Kestrel; Grootrooival (indigenous to WCP)                                          |
| Falco tinnunculus rupicolus         | Rock Kestrel; Rooival (indigenous to WCP)                                                  |
| Melierax canorus                    | Pale Chanting Goshawk; Bleeksingvalk (indigenous to WCP)                                   |
| Micronisus gabar                    | Gabar Goshawk; Witkruissperwer (indigenous to WCP)                                         |
| Parabuteo unicinctus                | Harris Hawk; Harris Valk; Harris Se Valk (exotic to South Africa)                          |